Consent for Medical Treatment

I, undersigned, as the patient (or the patient's authorized representative), do hereby voluntarily consent to and authorize medical care encompassing all diagnostic and therapeutic treatments and transfer to other facilities considered necessary or advisable in the judgment of the attending physician, his/her assistants or designee. I am aware that the practice of medicine and surgery is not an exact science, and I acknowledge that no guarantees have been made to me as to the results of treatments or examinations performed in this facility. I authorize the Zenith Integrated Specialist or members of its attending staff to retain, preserve and use for scientific or teaching purposes, or dispose of, at their convenience, any specimens of mine.

Financial Responsibility Statement

It is the policy of the Zenith Integrated Specialist to bill your insurance carrier as a courtesy to you, even though you may be considered responsible for the entire bill when the services are rendered. If your insurance carrier does not remit payment within 60 days, the applicable balance will then be due in full from you. Unless your insurance carrier has a contract with the Zenith Integrated Specialist to pay based on a specific negotiated fee schedule, you may be held responsible for any difference remaining between the insurance payment and the total charges.

We also require that arrangements for payments of your estimated share be made on the date services are rendered. If payment is made by your insurance carrier in excess of the balance of your account, we will promptly refund the credit to the appropriate party. If any payment is made directly to you for services billed by us, you recognize an obligation to promptly remit the same to the Zenith Integrated Specialist.

However, if you are an HMO enrollee, the above statements only apply to your applicable co-pay and/or any other non-covered charges that you have agreed to be responsible for in advance of treatment. If you are a Worker's Compensation patient, you will be held responsible for charges in the event your claim is not approved by either your employer or your insurance company. You understand and agree that if you fail to make the payments for which you are responsible in a timely manner, after such default and upon referral to a collection agency or attorney by the Zenith Integrated Specialist, you will be responsible for all costs of collecting monies owed including court costs, collection agency fees and attorney fees. You also understand that you are responsible for keeping Allied advised of any address changes. If any correspondence is returned via mail, you understand that the account will be considered in default and will be turned over for collection immediately.

Release of Information

I, hereby, authorize the Zenith Integrated Specialist to release information to my insurer(s), their agent(s) (including employer, if worked related injury), about my injury or disability, medical condition, evaluation, treatment, work history and/or any medical information as may be necessary for payment by my hospital and medical claims, except as otherwise provided by applicable State or Federal Laws. This release also allows information to be released for utilization review and financial audits or for the purpose of evaluation, treatment and/or rehabilitation. This may include all reports and others contained in the medical record pertaining to the medical condition or injury for which I have sought treatment. In addition, this release authorizes the Zenith Integrated Specialist to release my records to any referred physician for purposes of continued medical care. This will include all pertinent clinical note, diagnostic tests and personal information. Also, any medical information returned from referral physician used for Case Management purposes can be released to the above listed entities. I understand that this authorization may be revoked by me at any time and that it is valid for a period which is consistent with the medical records policy of the Zenith Integrated Specialist. Its personnel are hereby released from all legal responsibilities for such release of information as described above.

A photocopy or scanned copy of this document shall be considered to be valid as the original.

Benefit Assignment

I, hereby, assign all medical benefits and/or surgical benefits to include major medical benefits to which I am entitled, including Medicare, private insurances, and any other health plans to the Zenith Integrated Specialist.

A photocopy or electronic/scanned copy of this assignment is to be considered as valid as the original.

About Physician Assistants

This facility may have on staff a physician assistant to assist in the delivery of medical care. A physician assistant is not a doctor. A physician assistant is a graduate of an accredited, two-year training program and is licensed by the state board. They are required to pass the Physician Assistant National Certifying Examination to become a certified Physician Assistant (PA-C). Under the supervision of a physician, a physician assistant can diagnose, treat and monitor common acute and chronic diseases as well as provide health maintenance care. Supervision does not require the constant physical presence of the supervising physician, but rather refers to overseeing the activities of and accepting responsibility for the medical services that the physician assistant provides. These services may include obtaining histories, performing physical exams, diagnosing and treating illness, ordering and interpreting tests, counseling on preventive health care, assisting in surgery, writing prescriptions, and making appropriate referrals.

II. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS NOTICE. The original effective date of this Notice was April 26, 2003.

III. WE HAVE A LEGAL DUTY TO SAFEGUARD YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI). We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your personal information. This medical information is called protected health information or "PHI" for short. PHI includes information that can be used to identify you that we have created or received about your past, present, or future health or medical condition, the provision of health care to you, or the payment of this health care. We need access to your medical records to provide you with health care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This Notice applies to all of the records of the care and services you receive from us, whether made by our employees or your physician. This Notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose PHI about you and describes your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your PHI. However, we reserve the right to change the terms of this Notice and our Privacy Policies and Procedures at any time. Any changes will apply to the PHI we already have. Before we make an important change to our Privacy Policies and Procedures, we will promptly change this Notice and post a new Notice in the main patient waiting area. When we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this notice and post when applicable and provide you a copy of the revised notice. You can also request a copy of this Notice from us anytime.

IV. OUR DUTIES. We are required by law to:

- make sure that PHI that identifies you is kept private;
- give you this Notice of our privacy practices with respect to your PHI;
- disclose information on HIV, mental health, and/or communicable diseases only as permitted under federal and state law; and
- follow the terms of this Notice as long as it is currently in effect. If we revise this Notice, we will follow the terms of the revised Notice.

V. HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PHI. The following categories (listed in bold-face print) describe different ways that we use and disclose your PHI. Disclosures of PHI may be provided in various media, including electronically. For each category of uses or disclosures we will explain what we mean and give you some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information about you will fall within one of the bold-face print categories. Also, not all of the categories may apply to the health care service you are seeking.

A. For Treatment. We may disclose your PHI to physicians, nurses, case managers, and other health care personnel who provide you with health care services or are involved in your care. We may use and disclose your PHI to provide and coordinate the treatment, medications and services you receive including dispensing of prescription medications when applicable. For example, if you're being treated for a knee injury, we may disclose your PHI regarding this injury to a physical therapist or radiologist, or to medical equipment suppliers or case managers.

B. To Obtain Payment for Treatment. We may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the treatment and services provided to you. We may also provide your PHI to our Business Associates, such as billing companies and others that process our health care claims.

C. For Health Care Operations. We may disclose your PHI in order to operate our facilities. For example, we may use your PHI to evaluate the quality of health care services that you received, for utilization management activities, or to evaluate the performance of the health care professionals who provided the health care services to you. We may also provide your PHI to our accountants, attorneys, consultants, and others in order to make sure we are complying with the laws that affect us.

D. To Business Associates for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations. We may disclose PHI about you to one of our Business Associates in order to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations. For example, we may disclose PHI about you to a company who bills insurance companies on our behalf so that company can help us obtain payment for the health care services we provide.

E. Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. We may release PHI about you to a family member, other relative, or close personal friend who is directly involved in your medical care if the PHI released is relevant to such person's involvement with your care. We also may release information to someone who helps pay for your care. In addition, we may disclose PHI about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your location and general condition.

F. Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose PHI to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or health care if you have not opted out of such reminders.

G. Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose PHI to give you information about treatment options or alternatives if you have not opted out of such reminders. H. We may also disclose PHI about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else in the dispute.

- a. in response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process;
- b. to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person, but only if limited information (e.g., name and address, date and place of birth, social security number, blood type, RH factor, injury, date and time of treatment, and details of death) is disclosed; Notice of Privacy Practices

For example, a research project may involve comparing the health and recovery of all patients who received one medication to those who received another for the same condition. All research projects are subject to a special approval process which requires an evaluation of the proposed research project and its use of PHI, and balances these research needs with our patients' need for privacy. Before we use or disclose PHI for research, the project generally will have been approved through this special approval process. However, this approval process is not required when we allow PHI about you to be reviewed by people who are preparing a research project and who want to look at information about patients with specific medical needs, so long as the PHI does not leave our facility.

9. To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose PHI when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone who is able to help prevent the threat.

If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release PHI about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. 14. Food and Drug Administration (FDA). We may use and disclose to the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), or person under the jurisdiction of the FDA, protected health information relative to adverse events with respect to drugs, foods, supplements, products, and product defects, or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement.

K. Incidental Uses and Disclosures. Uses and disclosures that occur incidentally with a use or disclosure described in this Notice are acceptable provided there are reasonable safeguards in place to limit such incidental uses and disclosures.

VI. WHAT DO WE DO WITH YOUR INFORMATION WHEN YOU ARE NO LONGER A PATIENT OR YOU DO NOT OBTAIN SERVICES THROUGH US. Your information may continue to be used for purposes described in this notice when you no longer obtain services through us. After the required legal retention period, we destroy the information following strict procedures to maintain the confidentiality.

VII. YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PHI.

A. The Right to Request Limits on Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI. You have the right to ask that we limit how we use and disclose your PHI. We will consider your request but are not legally required to approve it. If we approve your request, we will put any limits in writing and follow them except in emergency situations. You may not limit the uses and disclosures that we are legally required or allowed to make. You have the right to request a restriction on disclosures of medical information to a health plan for purposes of carrying out payment or health care operations. We must comply as long as it is not for purposes of carrying out treatment; and the PHI pertains only to a health care service for which we have been paid out of pocket in full without the application of insurance benefits or discounts. If the payment is not honored, then we do not need to comply with the request if we need to seek payment.

B. The Right to Choose How We Send PHI to You. You have the right to ask that we send information to you to an alternate address or via an alternate method. We must agree to your request so long as we can easily provide it in the format you requested.

C. The Right to See and Get Copies of Your PHI. In most cases, you have the right to look at or get copies of your PHI that we have, but you must make the request in writing. If we do not have your PHI, but we know who does, we will tell you how to get it. In certain situations, we may deny your request. If we do, we will tell you in writing our reasons for the denial and explain your right to have the denial reviewed. If you request copies of your PHI, there may be a per page charge. Instead of providing the PHI you requested, we may provide you with a summary or explanation of the PHI as long as you agree to that and to any additional costs in advance.

D. The Right to Get a List of the Disclosures We Have Made. You have the right to get a list of instances in which we have disclosed your PHI in the past six (6) years. The list will include the date of the disclosure(s), to whom PHI was disclosed, a description of the information disclosed, and the reason for the disclosure. The list will not include uses or disclosures that were made for the purposes of treatment, payment or health care operations, uses or disclosures that you authorized, or disclosures made directly to you or to your family. The list also will not include uses and disclosures made for national security purposes, or to corrections or law enforcement personnel. Your request must state a time period that may not be longer than six (6) years prior but may certainly be less than six (6) years.

E. The Right to Correct or Update Your PHI. If you feel that the PHI we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment of the existing information or to add the missing information. You must provide the request and your reason for the request in writing. If we approve your request, we will make the change to your PHI, tell you that we have done it, and tell others that need to know about the change to your PHI. We may deny your request if the PHI is: (i) correct and complete, (ii) not created by us, (iii) not allowed to be disclosed, or (iv) not part of our records. Our written denial will state the reasons for the denial and explain your right to file a written statement of disagreement with the denial. If you do not file a statement of disagreement, you have the right to request that your request and our denial be attached to all future disclosures of your PHI.

F. The Right to Get This Notice. You have the right to get a copy of this Notice in paper and by e-mail.

G. The Right to File a Complaint. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated or if you disagree with a decision we make about your rights, such as accessing or amending your records, you may file a complaint with us by contacting us any time. You may also submit a written complaint to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights (OCR) or the option to e-mail your complaint to OCRmail@hhs.gov. We support your right to protect the privacy of your personal and health information. We will not retaliate in any way if you elect to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We will respond to all privacy requests and complaints. It has always been our goal to ensure the protection and integrity of your personal and health information. Therefore, we will notify you of any potential situation where your information would be used for reasons other than what is listed above.
